ORDER ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

The Court referred the request for revocation of Defendant's Supervised Release to United States Magistrate Judge Rebecca Rutherford for consideration. The Court has received the Report and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge pursuant to its order. Defendant having waived allocution before this Court as well as her right to object to the Report and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge, the Court is of the opinion that the findings and conclusions of the Magistrate Judge are correct.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the Magistrate Judge's Report is ADOPTED as the opinion and findings of the Court. The Court finds that Defendant violated the terms of her supervised release and ORDERS Defendant's supervised release is REVOKED. The Court sentences her to TIME SERVED, with an additional six-month term of supervised release to follow. The Court further ORDERS Defendant, upon her release, to participate in a 30-day program of inpatient substance abuse therapy and counseling, as approved by the probation office.

In addition to the conditions imposed in previous Judgments filed in this criminal case on November 28, 2017 and February 12, 2020, the following mandatory and additional conditions apply to the additional term of supervised release:

1. The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
3. The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter as determined by the Court.
4. The defendant shall also comply with the standard conditions recommended by the U.S. Sentencing Commission and shall comply with the following m additional conditions:
 1. The defendant shall participate in a program (inpatient and/or outpatient) approved by the probation officer for treatment of narcotic, drug or alcohol dependency that will include testing for the detection of substance abuse, which will include testing for the detection of substance use or abuse. The defendant shall abstain from the excessive use of alcohol and/or other intoxicants during and after completion of treatment. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of services rendered at the rate of at least $25 per month.

2. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment services as directed by the probation officer until successfully discharged. These services may include medications prescribed by a licensed physician. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of services rendered (copayment) at a rate of at least $25 per month.

The Standard Conditions of Supervised Release are as follows:

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.

2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.

3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.

4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.

9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.

10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).

11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.

12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.

13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SO ORDERED.

Signed July 21st, 2021.
